ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

On October 15, 2014, at the combined Initial Appearance and Arraignment of Defendant, Jose Rubio Villegas, with court-appointed counsel, this Court addressed the matter of his detention. Having confirmed that Villegas is presently subject to a detainer lodged against him by the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agency which currently provides for no bond, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Since Villegas presently has no legitimate claim to a liberty interest that would justify an immediate or meaningful detention determination under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), it is the ORDER of this Court that good cause exists to postpone the need for such a determination until such time as Villegas can maintain a legitimate liberty interest before this Court. See United States v. King, 818 F.2d 112, 114 (1st Cir. 1987), see also United States v. Coonan, 826 F.2d 1180, 1183 (2^d Cir. 1987). Accordingly, the Court finds that there is no need to make a detention determination at this time.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the Defendant, Jose Rubio Villegas, be, and is hereby, COMMITTED to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility.

It is further ORDERED that the Defendant, Jose Rubio Villegas, SHALL be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel.

It is further ORDERED that upon Order of a Court of the United States or upon request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility SHALL deliver Jose Rubio Villegas to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a Court proceeding.

DONE at Houston, Texas, this _____ 15th _____ day of October, 2014.

John R. Froeschner
United States Magistrate Judge
